

ORDINANCE NO 30

ORDINANCE PENALTIES

General Penalty.

Whenever in these ordinances, or in any technical or other code adopted by reference in these Ordinances or in any rule, regulation or order promulgated or made under authority of any provision of these ordinances, or under authority of any technical or other code adopted by reference in these ordinances, or under authority of State law, an act is prohibited or is made or declared to be unlawful or an offense or a misdemeanor, or whenever the doing of any act is required or the failure to do any act is declared to be unlawful, where no specific penalty is otherwise provided, whoever violates or fails to comply with any such provision shall be fined not more than five hundred dollars ($500.00) or imprisoned not more than ninety days, or both, for each offense. A separate offense shall be deemed committed each day during or on which a violation or noncompliance occurs or continues, unless otherwise provided.

Surcharges, Equitable Remedies.

The imposition of any penalty provided for in this section shall be in addition to any surcharge levied for a violation of or noncompliance with a provision of these ordinances, or a provision of a technical or other code adopted by reference in these ordinances, or a rule, regulation or order promulgated or made under authority of either, and shall be in addition to any equitable remedy provided by a provision of these ordinances, or a provision of a technical or other code adopted by reference in these ordinances, or a rule, regulation or an order promulgated or made under authority of either, or provided by State law, or a rule, regulation or order promulgated or made under authority of State law, including the enforced removal of prohibited conditions.

Complicity.

Every person concerned in the commission of an offense under these ordinances, whether he or she directly commits the act constituting the offense or procures, counsels, aids or abets in its commission, may be prosecuted, indicted, tried and on conviction shall be punished as if he or she had directly committed such offense.

Adopted this 16th day of May, 1989 by the Plainfield Township Board, Iosco County, Michigan.
